

Burghfield Camera Club invites you to hear Darren Lewey on Zoom:

- 7.30 – 10pm, Thursday 11th March
- guests please contact: burghfieldccsec@gmail.com

A two-part talk: New Ways of Representing a Familiar Location and The Celebration of Projects.

Darren began taking photographs in the early 1980's and printing in a makeshift darkroom at home. He went on to study photography, firstly on an art and design foundation course, before graduating with a degree in Photographic Studies in 1992 and an MSc in Film Production in 1994.

Photographing both landscape and portraiture using digital and large format film, his images are characterised by a high level of compositional and technical accomplishment. Based in Morocco, Darren explores the region for project related work and local scenes. He regularly writes for several online magazines including On Landscape and PetaPixel.
