

Burghfield Camera Club invites you to hear Tommy Hatwell on zoom:

- 7.30pm, Thursday 25th February

- guests please contact: burghfieldccsec@gmail.com

Tommy is a Plymouth-based full-time commercial photographer and creative coach. Tommy has travelled, lived, and worked around the world, been published in various papers and magazines. More recently his work was presented at the 2017 Taylor Wessing Portrait Prize on the walls of the National Portrait Gallery in London.

"I loved reading the stories behind the photos, which were stunning in themselves"
VB

"Great selection of our fascinating world, full of variety; no matter who or where, we are all human"

Absolutely beautifully portrayed photographs. Stunning photography, loved the write-ups too.

In this talk, he will share with you his photographic journey and adventures through both digital stills, moving image and a small number of printed photographs. With people, travel, and adventure at the forefront of his photographic drive, Tommy will go beyond the image and behind the scenes to share the moments before, after, and in-between the people, places, adventures, and relationships in his favourite photographs.
